

Clue Sheets

The following documents will help you and your group members solve the mystery. Use them to track and record your suspicions as the mystery progresses. Navigate using the clickable table of contents below. Return to this table by clicking the number in the top right hand corner of each page. These documents are designed to help your group, so utilize them in ways that are useful to you!

Table of Contents

- Hunch Record
- Act I: Puzzle Solving Aid
- Act II: Puzzle Solving Aid
- Act III: Bedroom Clues
- Final Verdict

Hunch Record

Use this document to track and record your detectives' hunches as the mystery progresses! Feel free to update this document at any time with your group as you play.

Suspicious Characters

-
- Record characters' movements, correspondances, and alibis here

Clues

-
- What details seem important? Are there objects out of place? Stories that don't add up?

Password Bank

-
- Record any passwords you collect here! You'll need to remember them to keep accessing the rooms of Emma's estate!

Tea Room
Parlor
Billiards Room
Bedrooms

Act I: Puzzle Solving Aid

The game is afoot, sleuths! Use this document to help you solve the puzzles in Act I.

Anagram

Use the tables below to get your anagram answers and access the password you need!

1.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

2.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

3.

--	--	--	--	--	--

4.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

5.

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Literary Trivia Game

Write out the full answers to each question in the literary trivia game here. As your final response, write out the first letter of each answer to move onto the next puzzle.

1. -
2. -
3. -

4. -
5. -

Jane Austen's Charade

Use this space to brainstorm the answer to Jane Austen's own charade, and reveal the murder weapon! Hint: Catherine's literary trivia will help you find the correct charade!

Act II: Puzzle Solving Aid

The game is afoot, sleuths! Use this document to help you solve the puzzles in Act II.

Billiards Room

Use this space to record any clues you come across in the billiards room!

Ciphered Letter

Use this space to solve the Cipher found on Willoughby's body. Your answer will give you more access!

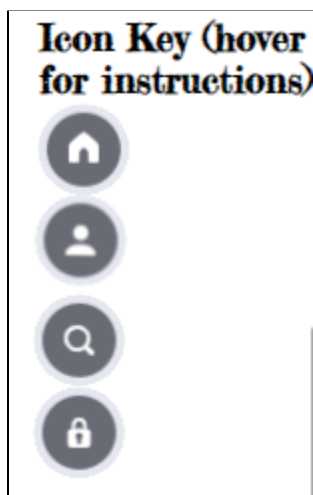

Image Cipher

Use this space to solve the cipher found in the periodical! Record the words below to unlock the final act of our mystery!

Act III: Bedroom Clues

Excellent work, sleuths! As you explore the suspects' bedrooms, use this document to take notes with your team. You can refer to these notes later, as you work together to solve the murder!!

To navigate the rooms, use these buttons:

The HOME Icon will return you to the blueprint page from each individual bedroom.

Icons with characters' PORTRAITS will return you to their bedroom after you've zoomed in on a clue.

Click on the MAGNIFYING GLASS to visit each bedroom.

LOCKED rooms require a key (or password) to enter. Look for keys in each bedroom, and use the password to enter the locked rooms.

Essential Information

Time of Death:

Character Alibis:

Bedrooms

Henry Tilney

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Henry Crawford

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Catherine Moreland

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Emma Woodhouse

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Lydia and George Wickham

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Mary Crawford

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Lady Susan Vernon

- Items discovered:
- Suspicious objects:
- Group conjectures:

Your Keychain

There are 4 locks in the house. Record the keys (or passwords) here, to open locked rooms or containers.

Password	Location of Discovery	Lock Location

Final Verdict

- Who murdered Willoughby?
- Where did the murderer hide the weapon?
- Why did the murderer kill Willoughby?